

Sleep in your Dreams

Blue through the half light
Drowned by the Dawn
Moment fading in reason
Wounded beyond the sky

Light left in mourning
Down by the day
Only time a redeemer
Never foe or a lie

You say look upon a star
When you find one
I know you fight for who you are
But it's all gone
And sometimes you sleep in your dreams to wake in the evening sun

Mum is there an answer
Eyes only tell
Find me only a question
Give me all but the day

And Father did you ever know
Fear to be wrong
Always never I'm learning
Knowing none or the way

You say look upon a star
If you find one
I know you fight for who you are
But it's all gone
When sometime you sleep in your dreams
To wake in the evening sun
Just walk in the evening sun
