

Summer Valentine

Broken Hearts and yesterdays
Childhood dreams and better ways
The endless days that always stayed

Loving Eyes with tender tears
Laughing hours in younger years
Where all our fears would fade away

Flowers in your hair
Summer in your brown eyes
Silver in the clouds
Dancing on the blue skies

There'll always be a place for you
In this heart of mine
And love will always shine on through
'till the end of time
Summer Valentine

Dodging trains and skipping school
Playing games and breaking rules
Just like fools and still the same

Drinking wine and getting laid
Staying out and breaking dates
We chose our fate and have to change
